20 PAGES TEN CENTS

VOL. 69 CANYON, TEXAS THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1964 NO. 27

Mrs. Shirley Jean Chamberlain is embraced by her daughter, Jo Ann, 13, minutes after District Judge Gene Jordan directed a verdict of not guilty in the murder case against her. Mrs. Chamberlain, charged in the shooting death of her husband, Lenzy Earl, has two other children, a son, Kenneth, 15; and another daughter, Vicki, 10. The Chamberlains were married 17 years.

Judge Instructs Jurors In Chamberlain Case

"He told me they would get me life or the electric chair and see that my children were separated in different orphans homes if I didn't sign a statement."

So testified Mrs. Shirley Jean Chamberlain about a statement she gave after interrogation by Amarillo Detective Walter Head following the shooting death of her husband in February.

Her testimony won her an instructed verdict of not guilty.

Mrs. Chamberlain, 34, specifically was charged with murder with malice in connection with the death of Lenzy Earl Chamberlain, 36.

Chamberlain was slain Feb. 21 at about noon at the family home at 3402 Nebraska in South Amarillo.

Noting that Detective Head was not present to refute testimony of Mrs. Chamberlain, Judge Jordan ruled that the statement was not admissible in evidence.

Detective Head resigned from the Amarillo Police Department about three months ago and is believed to be living now in Kentucky.

On a motion by Defense Attorney George McCarthy, Judge Jordan instructed the jury to bring a not guilty verdict after Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen said the state had no further testimony to offer.

Mrs. Chamberlain's testimony was presented in a voir dire proceedings to determine admissibility of the statement.

Mrs. Chamberlain told the court she was questioned by police on three different occasions, denied an attorney on the day the statement was signed by her and was offered her freedom within three days if she would agree to sign.

Mrs. Chamberlain testified that she was told that she would be charged with involuntary manslaughter and "would be free in three days" if she would sign the statement.

She said she was made this promise by Head, who did most of the interrogating for the Amarillo Police Department.

"The only reason I signed it was to keep my children together and to be with them if possible," Mrs. Chamberlain declared.

She said she was not aware that she was being charged with murder with malice until she was confronted with the charge upon her arraignment before Justice of the Peace W. A. "Bill" Wilson in Canyon the morning of March 3.

Mrs. Chamberlain said she went to the police station for questioning on three occasions. The first time was the day her husband was shot, the second time was Feb. 29 and the third time was March 2, the day she signed the statement.

She said that although her father, J. A. Sylvanus, 75, Colorado Springs, Colo., accompanied her to the police station March 3, she was not allowed to see him or to call an attorney during her interrogation that day.

Detective Lieutenant Charles Hollis testified that although he took the statement from Mrs. Chamberlain, Head actually did most of the interrogating.

He testified that the statement was read to Mrs. Chamberlain before she signed it and that she was warned that it would be used against her. He said she also was told that she had been charged with murder.

Mrs. Chamberlain denied these allegations.

She said the first time she was made aware of the contents of the statement was in the court room Tuesday when the statement was handed to her by her attorney.

She said the body of the statement was substantially correct except where it said "I reached over and pulled the trigger and the gun went off."

Mrs. Chamberlain maintained that the shooting which took her husband's life was an accident.

The state had put only three witnesses on the stand before offering the statement in evidence. It was at this point that the defense asked that the jury be taken outside the court room and the voir dire proceedings held outside the jury's hearing.

The defense called four witnesses and the state two during the voir dire proceedings.

Officers who went to the scene after the shooting testified that Chamberlain was found lying on his back in the kitchen with his arms folded across his abdomen. A rifle was lying on the floor about 15 inches from the body, according to testimony.

The jury of eleven men and one woman was completed Monday afternoon. Testimony began at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and the judge instructed the jury to return the not guilty verdict about noon the same day.

State's Attorney Dowlen was assisted in prosecution by Pat Malloy, assistant district attorney for Potter County.

FamedHumorist AddressesExes

Reg Manning, editorial cartoonist, will be featured speaker at the West Texas State University Phoenix Club Dinner Oct. 16.

Dinner will begin at 7 p.m. in the East Dining Hall, and is open to Phoenix Club members only.

Cartoonist Manning, the "man of 10,000 editorial cartoons" and a Pulitzer Prize winner will address the 240 club members on the eve of Homecoming.

Selection of Manning as featured personality was announced by Wayne E. Thomas, Hereford, who is chairman of the basic underwriting group for West Texas Ex-Students, Incorporated.

Manning, an internationally syndicated cartoonist, has poked artistic jibes at presidents, premiers, politicos, and plain tax-paying people since 1937. His pen-and-ink drawings have won syndication in Hong Kong, Tokyo, Mexico City and any one of the 127 cities in the United States and Canada.

He was called "the most characteristically American of all the Pulitzer Prize-winning artists", after receiving the award for his 1951 Korean War cartoon called "Hats".

Manning was influenced at an early age by the cartoons of Ding Darling which appeared in the Kansas City Star.

He first wanted to draw comic strips but concentrated on humorous local cartoons after moving to Arizona in 1919. His sketches, which grew to occupy a full page, were carried for 20 years in the Arizona Republic.

In addition to the Pulitzer Prize, Manning has received seven Freedom Foundation Awards and the National Safety Council award and numerous other awards.

Fellow cartoonists of the National Cartoonist Society awarded him a Silver T-Square.

Reg Manning's signature on his cartoons is identified by a little "laughing cactus", a meaningful trademark for he is quite an authority on the desert plant.

Ballot Goes To Printer

Randall County's ballot for the general election goes to the printer this week.

Randall County Clerk Tom Lair said there was some minor confusion at the last minute because the name of Leroy Hutton, Republican candidate for county commissioner of precinct 1, had not been properly certified by his party.

Certification was forthcoming Tuesday afternoon and Hutton's name will appear on the ballot. He is Randall County's only Republican candidate for county office.

His Democrat opponent for the post is B. R. Jones, the incumbent.

Democratic candidates appearing on the ballot unopposed are L. S. "Slim" Johnston, candidate for sheriff; George Dowlen, criminal district attorney; Bill Money, tax assessor-collector; W. A. "Bill" Wilson, justice of the peace, precinct 3; and Glenn Dowlen, commissioner, precinct 3.

CHS Plans Homecoming October 23

Plans for the 1964 Canyon High School Homecoming Oct. 23, began this week.

Canyon Parent Teachers Association will host a chuckwagon supper Friday, Oct. 23 at the high school followed by the Eagle-Hereford Whitefaces ball game.

A Homecoming Queen will be crowned during special ceremonies Friday after being elected Wednesday, Oct. 21.

Times and judges for the activities will be announced later this week, according to school authorities.

Enrollment Soars At WT

Enrollment figures totaled about 4,600 at West Texas State University this fall.

According to president, Dr. James P. Cornette, day and night class registration totals a little over 4,600 students.

"Night class enrollments look as if it will be about 1,030," said Cornette, "And 3,580 in the day."

The 1964 enrollment total compares with last year's 4,202 and represents about a 10 per cent increase, according to Cornette.

Area Advancement Tied To Education

Continued and rapid growth of West Texas State University was predicted here Saturday by Dr. Emmitt Smith as he spoke before some 100 representatives of area chambers of commerce.

Dr. Smith, Director of Program Development and Research, said West Texas State will have at least 7,000 students by 1970.

Among others, he cited a population shift to the area and the fact that the center of the helium industry is here as factors in WT's growth.

Dr. Smith declared that research will play a major role in the development of West Texas State.

"You don't go into a hayloft and make important discoveries any more," he declared.

He then told something of the Killgore Research Center about to be constructed on the WT campus.

He noted that computers have brought about what he called an explosion of knowledge. Dr. Smith said that computers now can lay before a researcher in a minute all the data available on a given subject---research that formerly would have required years.

He said computers to be used in research at WT will solve in two minutes problems that would require 50 years of a man's time in solving.

Dr. Smith said several new professional schools are in the offing for West Texas State. He noted that the building of the proposed medical center just west of Amarillo Veterans Hospital will serve as added stimulus for WT growth.

Dr. Smith said West Texas State University is swiftly becoming a center of excellence in the fields of research and instruction.

Dr. Floyd Golden, Amarillo, a graduate of WT and former president of Eastern New Mexico University, urged his listeners to build the image of West Texas State as a university rather than as a college.

He urged area loyalty for its institution of higher learning.

Dr. Golden said that area people, regardless of where they or their relatives may have gone to school, should be loyal to West Texas State University.

"This institution is educating young men and young women to go back to your communities," he declared. "It is raising the education level of the Panhandle area."

Dr. Golden said that a higher level of education means a higher level of economic well being for the Panhandle.

He said 85 percent of the West Texas State student body comes from this immediate area and declared that area people should use their influence in an effort to gain adequate financing for the insti-

University Completes Plans For Homecoming

"A Chance to Visit" sets the mood for the West Texas State University Homecoming festivities Oct. 16 and 17.

Numerous activities have been planned by the Homecoming committee, chaired by Dr. Jack Walker.

Homecoming assembly plans, arranged by Elms, include participation by the WT band, cheerleaders, football coach and players, and other University representatives.

The assembly begins at 11 a.m. Thursday in either the Field House or Administration Building Auditorium.

Bob Izzard, head of the KGNC News Department, will be master of ceremonies.

The assembly will be taped and shown on KGNC-television. Highlighting the activities will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming parade gets underway at 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 17. Parade theme is "Texas Myths and Legends."

Fourteen float entries are listed at the University Student Association office, including sororities Alpha Delta Pi, Delta Zeta, Zeta Tau Alpha and Chi Omega; fraternities, Kappa Alpha; Alpha Tau Omega, Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Delta Theta; Student Association and Ex-Students, Incorporated ; Circle K; Industrial Arts Club; Buffalo Masquers; Kappa Pi; and T-Anchor Rodeo Club.

The Homecoming barbecue will be at 4:30 p.m. in front of the Student Union cafeteria. Tickets cost $1.25 each. The barbecue will be catered by Jetton.

Homecoming activities will be climaxed Oct. 17 when West Texas State University clashes with Memphis State University at 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Bowl.

It's Homecoming time at West Texas State University and these WT students are beginning work on floats, which will be the main projects for most organizations the next week. Jan Story, Judy, Jay, Jackie Andrews and Fred Gordon take nails and hammer in hand to put a float together for the Oct. 17 parade in downtown Canyon.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

The Canyon News has asked all four major candidates including the President, Senator Hubert Humphrey, Senator Barry Goldwater and Congressman William Miller, to make public their income tax returns for the past eight years.

Anyone who has ever filled out a financial statement knows that they are elastic. A piece of property actually is worth what it will bring on the market.

But suppose the property is not on the market and has not recently been on the market. At what do you value it then.

You can value it by its past earning history or its projected earning possibility. These may be poles apart.

If the financial worth of the candidates is to be a campaign issue, and the candidates themselves have made it one, then the electorate is entitled to know where and how they obtained their wealth. We contend that there is not much better source of this information than the income tax returns of those involved.

We talked with Lawyers George Dowlen and George McCarthy Tuesday about signed confessions.

That people accused of crime will sign a confession is a mystery to most lawyers and law enforcement officials. Few murderers could be convicted without signed statements.

In fact, we have been covering the courts since 1947 and have seen only two cases in which a defendant was convicted of murder without a signed statement made by himself being used against him.

One case involved a bootlegger who shot his wife. His son was an eyewitness to the shooting and made a statement to officers a few minutes after the homicide.

Another murder charge without a confession drew the defendant, a well known Amarillo football player, a 35-year sentence. A teenage service station attendant working his way through school was shot in the back during a robbery.

Most of the attorneys in the case agreed that a confession by the defendant, coupled with the viciousness of the crime and the mountain of evidence piled up by the prosecution, probably would have produced a death sentence instead of the 35-year term.

E. T. "Dusty" Miller, one of the most astute barristers in Panhandle legal annals, was defense counsel in the first murder trial we ever covered. That was in the Hutchinson County court house at Stinnett in 1947.

"If you ever visit the penitentiary down at Huntsville," Dusty told us once, "just look around. You won't see any deaf and dumb people down there."

We talked to Ranger Butch Albers about it. He agreed that convictions would be hard to come by without statements. He is just as puzzled as we are that people accused of crime, especially murder, usually wind up giving a statement.

We have it figured this way. Basically people want to be good and they almost automatically seek self-justification.

Hitler justified Belsen, Stalin the purge of 1936 and Khrushchev his butchery in the Ukraine.

The criminal hates himself for his vicious acts and his tormented soul cries out, "Sure I did it but I had my reasons. I'll give you my life for my act if you will let me tell the world about my reasons."

This streak of human nature, fortunately, is not likely to change.

Ranger Albers admits that without it the law probably could not even be enforced.

We wish everyone would read the story of Wink, Texas in the current issue of the Reader's Digest.

Wink was almost a ghost town a couple of years ago. The oil industry had passed it by after having mushroomed it temporarily into a boom town. The population shrank to about the 2,000 mark.

Urban renewal decided to "save" Wink. Some $2,000,000 in federal urban renewal funds were pumped into the town, theoretically to prepare it for a new business boom.

Wink has proved no Phoenix. On the contrary, a lot of folks who had been chased away from their homes by bulldozers of the urban renewal project used their share of the government relocation money for their properties to leave town.

Wink has lost about 300 population since the costly urban renewal project, designed to convert it into a business Mecca, got underway.

The most astonishing thing about it all is that the people planners in the administration think it is a huge success. They say the Wink project is "an outstanding example of small-city revitalization."

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

In every newspaper mistakes are bound to crop up in print, no matter how thoroughly the paper is checked and rechecked.

Last week we made a couple which seemed to glare out at us the minute the papers came off the press.

But at that late date there is no turning back.

We had the Boy Scout leaders meeting on Tuesday in a headline, but in the first sentence in the story, the leaders were to meet on Thursday. Rather confusing for those not certain of the correct date.

And over in the paper we had Mrs. R. B. Gist, Jr. pictured with two of her children and Vicki Daniel. We simply failed to name Kathy and Roger Gist in the cutline.

Please accept the apologies of the News staff. Each and every week we strive longer hours to produce a perfect paper. Perhaps one of these days we will have a paper without one typo, and may our readers smile with the knowledge that we really did it..if for just the one occasion.

Speaking of typos, I ran across this one in a wedding story which appeared in an area newspaper.

"The couple made a wedding trip to Brownwood.

"They are not at home at 1416 Bailey Street at San Angelo."

Now where would you think they might be at home if not at the above address? Just goes to show, every newspaper is plagued with the same problem..people and human error.

Little Timothy Martin came up with a cute one the other day. He was all excited about the new Halloween costumes which have hit the show windows in town.

"Mother I just have to have a new costume," he exclaimed as he tugged at her skirt.

"Timothy, what's the matter with the skeleton outfit you had last year?" Mrs. Martin questioned.

"Well, Mother, it's all 'holy'," the boy answered.

"And it just wouldn't do to have a skeleton with holes in it?" the mother continued her questioning.

"Well, I guess most skeletons are holy, aren't they?" he agreed.

But even this small concession to his mother was not enough to keep her out of the stores looking over the fresh, new batch of scary witches and goblins.

Had a delightful evening with the Farmer Browns this week.

Mrs. Zora Campbell and myself were guests of the Browns for one of their famous fish feasts.

And a fish feast it was, too. My goodness, Zora and I ate the couple out of house and home, and were still ready for more.

Must say, I've heard for a long time that the Browns were fishing folks, and that they knew how to fix those fish for eatin'. Well, I'm convinced. That was the best fish I've ever had.. limited experience but still the best for me.

Golden brown crappies that make your mouth water just seemed to pop out of that skillet onto the platter.

Have to send my hearty thanks to the Browns for that feast.

Bad thing about it. Food that good spoils me against my own cooking.

744 Farmers File Wheat Applications

More than 740 Randall County farmers signed up for the 1965 wheat program last week at the ASCS office.

Approximately 744 farmers filed program applications with the local ASCS office in Canyon out of a possible 1048 farmers eligible for the program.

The 744 farmers represent 71 per cent of all farms in the county and shows 113,731 acres of allotment in the 1965 program.

Approximately 120,924 acres are alloted in the county. This figures includes all the conservation reserve contract farms in the county.

Thirty-eight farms were signed to exceed the wheat allotment by as much as 50 per cent, according to ASCS manager Donald Lloyd.

The 38 farmers also signed to store excess wheat under the provision of the 1965 wheat program.

Lloyd said all wheat extentions can be revised during the feed-grain and sign-up February and March of next year.

If farmers sign up for both the wheat and the feed-grain programs, they will have an opportunity to take advantage of the substitution provisions in both programs, Lloyd explained.

CCTA Begins Meeting Year

A pot luck dinner for members of the Canyon Classroom Teachers association opened the first meeting of the 1964-65 school year.

The meeting was held on Tuesday evening in Rex Reeves Elementary School cafeteria.

Special guests at the dinner were school administrators, board members and their wives.

Mrs. R. D. Wheelock, president, welcomed the group, and the invocation was given by Mrs. Bill Haggard.

Mrs. Oscar Hinger, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Donna Wilson, Mrs. Mildred Harris, and Mrs. Hazel Sunderman who directed get acquainted games.

Hosts and hostesses were members of the executive board, the immediate past president, and building representatives.

The program was concluded by the singing of "God Bless America" by the members and guests.

Kiwanis Sponsors Work Day

Canyon Kiwanis Club is sponsoring Work Days at the C. B. Cable home Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The local organization will furnish paint and tape to complete work on the home, which is being refinished for Mrs. C. B. Cable and her seven children.

Mr. Cable died last spring from gunshot wounds he received accidentally.

Mrs. Cable and her family were given a house which was moved to Fifth Avenue in Canyon by local businessmen. Donations have been given to repair the house for occupancy.

"Wayne Wirt Electric will have the electrical work completed by this week end, and the plumbing will be near completion, so the only thing left will be the painting of the outside and the perfataping," said Justice of the Peace Bill Wilson.

"We have paid for everything but the plumbing and a few odds and ends. We need a little more money to complete everything," Wilson explained.

"The kitchen has no cabinets, so we do need some cabinets. If someone has some cabinets to donate they should contact me at the courthouse annex," Wilson said.

Kiwanis Club members invite anyone out to the home who would like to contribute some time to the project Thursday, Friday or Saturday.

"It will just take a little more work, if everyone will get together," Wilson commented.

Parish Dinner At Rex Reeves

St. Ann's parish dinner, which will be held in the Rex Reeves Elementary School, is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 18.

Tickets will be sold at the door only, according to Joe Gidden, parish member.

Admission to the catered meal will be $1.50 for adults and 75¢ for children 6-12 years old. Children under 6 years will be admitted free of charge.

A color television and a Shetland pony will be given away during the afternoon of the dinner.

The public is invited to attend the dinner.

"Take it easy!" grimaces Buff center Charlie Daves as he is hauled off the playing field with an injured knee in the beginning minutes of fourth quarter play Saturday night. However, taming a tiger isn't easy and the tough, dependable Daves was aching to get back into drills Monday afternoon although his walking abilities have been slowed down some with a pair of crutches. Daves, senior letterman from Mineral Wells, is one of the finest WTSU footballers and has starred defensively in all three opening Buff games. He will be out of action indefinitely as X-rays Tuesday revealed a hairline fracture above the knee.

Stompers Drilled By NMMI Saturday

West Texas State University's freshmen fought a fiery second-half battle but lost to New Mexico Military Institute 35-24 Saturday.

The WT squad, playing at Roswell, refused to hand NMMI an easy Homecoming victory and jumped to a brief first period lead.

Barefoot kicker Dave Reynolds kicked a 16-yard field goal to open scoring action. The lead was short-lived, however, as NMMI rebounded with a six-pointer plus the conversion kick.

A troublesome second quarter for the West Texas crew ended with New Mexico holding a 21-10 halftime edge. WT frosh Tim Herspold rampaged 52 yards to tally the touchdown and Reynolds booted the extra.

WT's Stompers held New Mexico on an even keel in second half play, matching scoring at 14-14. The frosh had fallen behind on a 28-10 score when third quarter play ended.

Back to play in the fourth period the WT herd stormed into action scoring two markers in the last 5 minutes of play. Scoring came from an 11-yard pass by quarterback Don Jermyn to Dave Szymakowski, with Reynolds kicking the extra. Szymakowski then caught a 25-yard aerial from Jermyn for the other TD and Reynolds kicked.

The score was 28-24 in New Mexico's favor, 40 seconds remaining, when New Mexico scampered past WT defensive men for 15 yards and the last tally.

In the first down department, WT had 14, New Mexico 13; in total offense, WT had 290 yards to some 248 yards for NMMI and the frosh completed 15 of 31 passing tries while New Mexico completed 2 of 9.

"The boys did a real good job," reported WT freshman coach John David Bryant, "and especially when they were down and came back with a strong second half."

"We didn't win the game but we fought all the way," continued Bryant. "All the boys played good ball."

Bryant singled out punters Reynolds, who booted 4 for 4, and Bob Maloney who did a good job kicking.

"Both quarterbacks, Don Jermyn and Evan Burian, did a good job of throwing the ball," Bryant said. "Szymakowski, an end, is a good receiver and caught 6 passes for 98 yards. James Leonard and Tim Herspold did some impressive running. Ronnie Peacock and Ricky Barrett played all-around good offensive and defensive ball, also James Fisher."

Bryant mentioned linemen Joe Lewallen, Raymond Richardson, Errol Guidry, corner man Allen Hartless, and Don Tardy, who played good defense and Richard Reneau, who played almost the entire ballgame as center and linebacker.

Tom Polosky, guard, was the major casualty of the game with an ankle injury. He reported for Monday drills on crutches, but should return to action soon.

Next game on the Stomper schedule is Oct. 29 with the freshmen traveling to Abilene to meet McMurry's "B" unit. First home game is Nov. 6 at 1:30 p.m. against Air Force Academy. Last on the WT schedule is New Mexico State University, 7:30 p.m., here.

Cow Killed In Accident

Cows and cars don't mix; just ask Charles Caballero of Canyon.

Charles, son of Dr. and Mrs. Emilio Caballero, was driving home from Childress last Friday night when his trouble began.

He was just outside the city limits of Canyon on farm-to-market road 217 east of the city. As he came across a bridge he saw a cow standing on the road.

He was unable to swerve to avoid the animal because of the bridge, and his only alternative was to strike the cow.

The car received an estimated $100 damage, and the cow lost its life. But no one was injured in the vehicle.

Take Caballero's word for it, cows and cars don't mix.

Brillhart, Petites Take WOW Contest

Ruth Ann Brillhart was the winner of the WOW's cash prize contest at the regular meeting of the group Monday evening.

The group met in the home of Loudene West with one hare, three turtles, three sitting ducks and one pig in attendance.

The WOW's, or Win Over Weight, as the club is also known, are a group of women who formed a club last summer in a joint effort to lose weight.

A contest was begun during August, to last for six weeks. Those entering the contest paid entry fee of $1, used for the cash prize, which was given to the person having the greatest total weight loss.

At the same time, a contest was begun between two teams, the Petites, and the Little Girls, with members of each vying for the greatest totaled weight loss. The winner of this contest was scheduled to be treated to an event of their choice by the losing team.

In the team contest, the Petites won over the Little Girls by a great margin. Plans are now being made to treat the Petites to a Salad Supper. In the campaign, both teams lost a total of 41 1/2 pounds.

A new contest will begin Oct. 12. Members are to bring a towel. On November 2, the towels will be awarded to the member with the greatest weight loss. Prospective members are urged to join now and begin on the new contest. For information call OL. 5-2320 or OL. 5-2312.

WOW members will meet next week at 3102 Fourth Avenue, Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

New officers elected by the club are Wanda Price, president, Osce Parsons, vice-president; Georgia Black, secretary, and Louise Williams, reporter.

Nuptial High Mass Unites Artho, Raef In Umbarger

St. Mary's Catholic Church, Umbarger, was the scene of the wedding Monday afternoon, September 28, of Miss Gracie Ann Artho and Guy Donald Raef.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Artho. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Raef of Umbarger.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Right Rev. Msgr. W. F. Bosen, who offered the Nuptial High Mass.

Mrs. Vincent Ehly, of Canyon, offered traditional nuptial selections at the organ, and the Nuptial High Mass was sung by St. Mary's choir.

For the wedding the church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli on the main altar and white chrysanthemums on the side altars.

Miss Linda Wieck, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susy Raef and Miss Margaret Raef, sisters of the bridegroom. They were dressed identically in pastel blue brocaded satin dresses designed with fitted bodice accented with a rounded neckline and short sleeves. The skirts were fashioned with controlled front and unpressed pleats. They wore matching crowns of braided blue satin with halo veils and carried bouquets of white and blue frenched mums.

Stuart Raef of Amarillo, cousin of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Artho of Hereford, and Andy Artho of Wildorado, brothers of the bride. Assuming ushering duties were Billy Albracht and Gerald Brandt, both of Umbarger.

For her sister's wedding, Mrs. John Wieck chose a three piece suit of red double knit with black accessories. Mrs. Raef, mother of the groom, wore a royal blue dress with white accessories.

The bride wore a wedding gown of imported peau de soie fashioned with a fitted bodice and having lace-edged baby doll neckline and tapered sleeves. The lace motif was repeated in parallel lines from the front bodice and caught by tiny tailored peau de soie bows at either side of the controlled front skirt panel. Unpressed side pleats of bouffant skirting swept into a full chapel train and were held by a double bow of peau at the bodice back. Her shoulder length veil of imported illusion was attached to a sequin crown traced with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations encircling a white cattleya orchid.

Following the wedding, a reception for relatives and friends was held in the Parish Hall, followed by a wedding supper.

Presiding at the guest book were Miss Carolyn and Miss Marilyn Wieck, twin nieces of the bride. In the house party were Mrs. Leonard Batenhorst, Mrs. Raymond Batenhorst, Mrs. L. J. Wieck, and Mrs. Lee Haschke, Dawn. Assisting were Miss Diana Batenhorst, Miss Carolyn Gerber, Miss Mary Albracht, Miss Judy Batenhorst, and Miss Carol Gerber.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a pink wool sheath with black accessories. The couple will visit points of interest on their trip to San Diego, where they will make their home.

A 1963 graduate of Umbarger High School, the bride has been employed in the Randall County Clerk's Office, Canyon.

Her husband graduated from Canyon High School in 1962. He is now serving in the United States Navy and is stationed on the U. S. S. Eldorado at San Diego, California.

Guests attending the wedding were from Canyon, Hereford, Dawn, Dimmitt, Vega, Westway, Wildorado and Amarillo.

Buffaloes Hit Trail Saturday, Face Eagle Eleven At Denton

Facing North Texas State University's football squad isn't an enviable chore and West Texas State tackles it Saturday.

Buffalo gridmen journey by bus to Denton for the 8 p.m. battle, leaving Canyon Friday morning at 8 a.m. They will work out in Denton Friday afternoon.

The North Texas State Eagles have a 1-1-1 record this season. After a 0-0 tie with Texas Western in the opener, they lost to Bowling Green 21-7 then came back strong to top Louisville University 22-0 for their first Missouri Valley Conference victory.

"North Texas State seems to be improving with every ballgame they play," said coach Clarence Dierking, who scouted the North Texas - Louisville game.

"They have a well-conditioned team and separate offensive and defensive units, with the exception of Carl Lockhart, who plays both."

"North Texas has real good backs, outstanding on movability. The backs are not power runners, but real quick."

The Eagles use a basic wing "T" formation and will run split sets. Eight lettermen returned to the squad this season.

"North Texas is basically a ground team," reported Dierking, "but against Louisville they threw 27 passes. Sophomore quarterback Hank Cooper threw most of the passes and did a good job."

Dierking listed top Eagle pass receivers Lockhart, split end Mike Bailey and tight end Herb Carr. The Eagles show good depth at tackles, led by Cotton Moore who was All Missouri Valley Conference last season.

Top backfield men include outstanding fullback A. D. Whitfield, who carried 12 times against Louisville and averaged 4.7 yards per carry, Junior College transer David Neale and 5-5, 157 pound junior Blackie Wade.

North Texas' halfback Lockhart is an outstanding pass defender. The Eagle unit slowed the passing attack of Louisville's passer, who was number one in the nation going into the game.

Less than gay was the Buffalo camp again this week. Head coach Joe Kerbel's "walking wounded" crew grew.

Sidelined during practices early this week were Terry Funk, Gene Browning, James Williams, Roy Armentrout, Charlie Daves and Ronnie Mankin.

Funk and Browning have been okayed for action. Funk suffered a mild concussion in an auto accident two Sundays ago but has recovered sufficiently. Browning reinjured an ankle, but will be on the defensive lineup Saturday.

Leading WT kicker Armentrout, still hobbling with a stiff left leg which resulted from the car accident, will be able to boot the conversions.

Sidelined from game activities for an unknown length of time are Buff safety, Ronnie Mankin, who hurt his already injured shoulder again last weekend against Texas Western. James Williams, who suffered a severe sprain in the opening grid battle against Ohio U., is still on the waiting list.

The biggest of all of Kerbel's headaches came when he received a doctor's report on center Charlie Daves, injured in fourth period of the Texas Western game. X-rays of Daves' knee made Tuesday showed a hairline fracture of the bone just above the knee.

Daves returns to the doctor in 10 days. He spent workout time this week restlessly hobbling back and forth on his crutches. The fierce linebacker center and star competitor was not expecting the bone to be fractured, and had earlier expressed determination to play Saturday night. He was rather downcast following the report.

Coach Joe Kerbel had expressed happiness in the aftergame report of the WT-Miners game.

Among footballers receiving Kerbel's praise for Saturday's performance were Tony Waters, Gene Browning, David Shellabarger and Jerry King.

Fullback Russell Mundy, back at full strength, impressed North Texas State scout Ken Bahnsen.

The Buffs face the first away-from-home game of this season against the Eagles of NTSU.

Next on the schedule is a return home for Homecoming's game against mighty Memphis State, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

Canyon Capers Have Visitors

Guests from two Amarillo dance clubs attended the meeting of Canyon Capers held Monday evening in the Junior Livestock Building.

Present from Reddy Squares were Don Blalock and Bernice Day, and Junell Bauer from Levis and Lace.

Club members welcomed back LaVerne and Squirrely Daniel.

A nominating committee was set up for officer elections Dec. 1, consisting of Emil and Dorothy Olson, Leroy and Laura Pitt, and Ervin and Dorothy Davis.

Other members present for the meeting were Lee Roy and Gladys Bauer, Emil and Dorothy Olson, Walter and Mary Cox, D. A. and Inez Prichard, Bill and Ozell Dugan, Ervin and Dorothy Davis, Truman and Ethel Freemen, Noble and Ruth Brown, and Curtis and Shirley Lehnick.

County Unit Begins Cancer Memorial Fund

A memorial fund has been started by the Randall County Unit of the American Cancer Society, according to James Cole, memorial chairman.

Cole said this week the fund was established because so many families and individuals have sought a way to contribute money and support through the name of a cancer victim.

"Contributions made in memory of a friend or a member of the family are acknowledged by the American Cancer Society, and a memorial card is sent to the family stating that a memorial has been received and giving the name of the donor," Cole said.

"Memorial funds are used to support the Society's three-fold attack on cancer through research, education and service," Cole continued.

Memorial funds should be sent to the American Cancer Society, Randall County Unit, Box 119, Canyon.

The first band parents meeting will follow the first concert by the public school bands, which is scheduled for sometime in December, according to Gary Zook, band director.

tution.

Dr. James P. Cornette spoke at a dinner meeting of the same group.

He said that higher education is the "life blood" of an area's ability to go forward and the lack of it means that an area will be left behind.

He said an education no longer is sought for snob appeal or as a status symbol but today is absolutely essential.

Dr. Cornette spoke briefly on the findings of the governor's committee on education beyond high school.

He said that Texas has been falling behind in the number of people with university and professional education. He declared that this state ranked 17th eight years ago and ranks 30th.

Dr. Cornette said he agrees with the finding of the governor's committee that a board on higher education with a staff to coordinate all state schools is needed. He said he has been on record for the past 10 years as favoring such a move.

Dr. Cornette said he does not believe that the role of small schools would be diminished by such a move.

"I would depend on people with information to plot West Texas State University's role," he declared.

The WT president pointed out that from the permanent university fund the University of Texas has an annual income of $12,000,000 and Texas A&M $7,500,000. He said the legality of using some of this money for some other state institutions of higher learning has never been tested in court.

He said a re-evaluation must come and predicted that such a re-evaluation would be high on the agenda of a coordinating board.

The direction of the development of higher education in Texas will be set by the legislature within the next year, Dr. Cornette declared.

The area visitors came to the West Texas State campus as guests of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. William A. Cooper of West Texas State University has been awarded a heart research grant renewal.

Cooper, associate professor of biology at WTSU, received the renewal as a termination grant to allow him to compile research he has done during the past 5 years.

The grant was awarded by the National Heart Institute of the National Institutes of Health.

According to Cooper, the research has been concerning the effect of vitamins on the development of the heart in rats.

Specifically, Cooper said his research procedure has been to withhold one vitamin from the diet of a mother rat, mate her and check the hearts of her offspring. So far this research has been done with 5 different vitamins.

"Most of the vitamins I have studied will affect the development of the heart, either by causing a slow development or improper or abnormal development," said Cooper.

"Improper diet, specifically the improper intake of vitamins, can have a very adverse effect on the development of a child as it is being formed," said Cooper.

Cooper's research began at Texas A & M College, where he studied 2 years. He continued with 3 years of research at WTSU.

He received $8,910 in grant funds for the first 2 years, $9,822 for each of the last 3 years, reapplying each year for the funds. The termination grant is $9,156.

Some $5,000 worth of equipment needed for the research is situated in the science building at WTSU.

During the past three years Cooper has employed from 2 to 5 students to assist him in the research project, at the same time helping them learn about research.

Cooper came to West Texas State in 1957. He earned his BS and MS degree at North Texas State University and his Ph. D. at Texas A & M. He was also research director for the Research Foundation at Texas A & M.

He is the author of three publications, including "Tissue Abnormalities in Newborn Rats from Biotin-Deficient Mothers", published in March, 1958; "Reproduction in the Biotin-Deficient White Rat", Sept. 1958; and "Congenital Heart Abnormalities in Biotin-Deficient and on Pathothenic Acid-Deficient White Rats", published in 1962. One other publication has been submitted.

Future research plans for Cooper are uncertain, but he expressed an interest in working with biological and chemical research of the Canadian River project lake or research of the water pollution situation for Buffalo Lake and its sources.

Buffs Stampede For Vital Victory

Win-hungry West Texas State University scored its first season victory 14-0 over Texas Western in Buffalo Bowl Saturday night.

The Buffalo herd thundered to a 7-0 halftime lead and held on greedily as Texas Western's Miners launched a futile passing attack.

In two previous outings the Buffs had fallen, dropping a heartbreaking opener 16-14 to Ohio State and losing 34-8 against Arizona State University.

West Texas State travels to Denton Saturday to meet North Texas State in a 7:30 p.m. clash.

The weekend victory over the Miners was a much-needed one for the Buffaloes—and they fought for it to the last down.

Scoring was no picnic for the determined WTSU unit, who watched the ball change hands 7 times in the first quarter before holding onto it long enough to tally.

A field goal attempt by George Allen on the previous Buff series had failed. Texas Western futilely tried three passes, gave up and punted to WT's 31.

Earl West lost 1 on the first down, but the next play was a beauty of a pass completion from Bill Bundy to Ted Wheeler to the TW 34. Russell Mundy bullied through the line 3 times getting to the TW 9 as the quarter ended.

Dennis Flanagan scampered to the 6, then West charged off tackle on a quick opener for the TD. Stiff-legged Roy Armentrout, still hobbling from last week's car accident, booted the point after for a 7-0 margin.

It certainly wasn't field goal night for West Texas as two first half attempts by Allen and one by Armentrout were unsuccessful.

Only 5 times ball possession was exchanged before the Buffs set up the other goal-ward march late in the third quarter.

Tony Waters lost 2 yards, Mundy gained 3 and Bundy threw to Jerry King, with pass interference charged against Texas Western to place the ball on the 19.

Bundy's screen pass to Mundy was good for a 7-yard loss, but a good catch by Woody Gilliland on the next play moved WT to the 7.

The scoreboard read fourth quarter when Bundy threw into the end zone and Flanagan, buried under Miner defenders, miracuously made the grab for the six-pointer. Armentrout boomed a good one, scoring read 14-0.

Three times West Texas State stiff-armed Miner scoring threats, the first threat dying as the halftime clock ran out with the Miners claiming first-and-ten at the WT 5.

Midway in quarter three Texas Western received Buff freshman Steve Haterius' punt at their own 18. A couple of Buff penalties and 7 plays later, the Miners had moved to the West Texas 3 yard marker. On third and goal to go, Joe Harrison sailed a pass into the end zone, intercepted by alert defender Waters who scrambled out to the WT 22.

Danger loomed again at the top of the fourth period when Allen's kickoff to the TW 5 was brought out to the 31 to set up the series. On first down right half Walter Johnson flew around right end and down the sideline for 59 yards before Waters nailed him at the WT 10.

At the 10 the Buffs' well-tested goal line defense, sparked by Butch Walterscheid, Gilliland and Waters, muffled the Miner run-pass attack.

Playing laurels could hardly be handed out to Buff individuals, but among top notables were Gene Browning, Gilliland, David Shellabarger, Walterscheid, King and Waters.

West Texas State held only a slight edge in most of the final statistics. The Buffs did push for 15 first downs to Texas Western's 9.

Rushing yardage totaled 164 for WT and 132 for Texas Western and passing yardage was 92 (WT) and 90 (TW).

The Buffs completed 6 of 12 passes and had 1 intercepted; Western tried 19 aerials, completed 4 and had 2 intercepted. Buff punting averaged 30.4 yards for 5 tries and the Miners kicked 8 times for a 33.9 average.

Ground-wise, West Texas State unleashed fullback Russell Mundy for 14 carries and 60 yards. Mundy, back at full strength, sat out the Arizona State game with an injury he received in the first season tilt.

Halfbacks West and Flanagan made the other big rushing gains. West carried 18 times, netted 52 yards and Flanagan carried 10 times for 39 yards.

Miner rushing leader was halfback Walter Johnson who carried 9 times for a 90-yard total.

WT quarterback Bundy threw 9 times, completed 4, and netted 55 yards while sophomore David Fleming completed 2 of 3 passes for 37 yards. Harrison did all the Texas Western passing, 19 tries, 4 completions, and 90 yards.

Split end Chuck Hughes caught the 4 passes listed for the Miners.

Pass receivers, WT, were Gilliland with 3 for 47 yards; Wheeler, 1 for 36; and "Flash" Flanagan, 1 for 17 yards and a touchdown.

William A. Moore, professor of speech at West Texas State University, made the announcement.

Another scholarship was awarded annually by the Eta Iota Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity.

Miss Davis, a graduate of Canyon High School, is the daughter of Mrs. Virgil Davis, Route 2, Canyon. She is majoring in music at WTSU.

Masquers Elect Fall Officers

Officers were chosen last week for Buffalo Masquers, drama organization at West Texas State University.

Wright, Musgrave Attend Recent District ACS Meet

Charles E. Wright and Ray Musgrave served as delegates at an American Cancer Society District meeting in Pampa recently.

The annual meeting of District Three North was held at the Coronado Inn Motel.

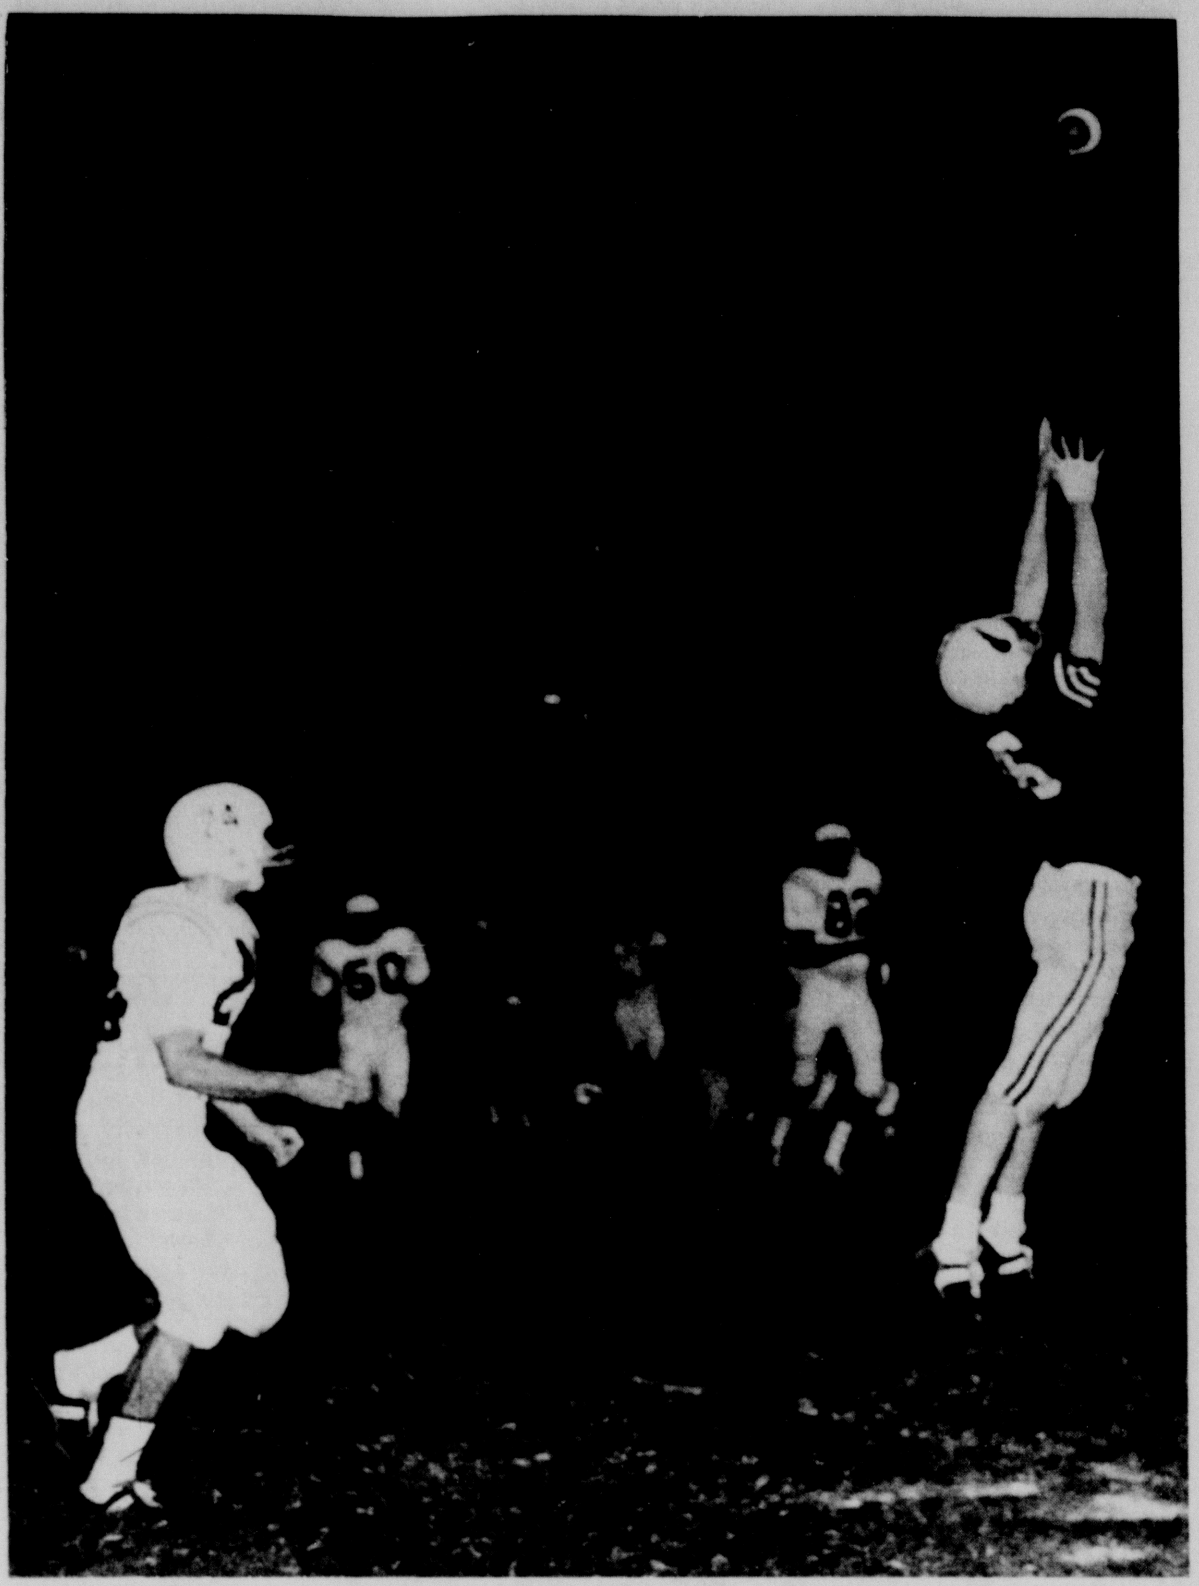
Wright, associate professor of biology at West Texas State University, and Musgrave, Canyon High School Counselor, represented the Randall County Unit.

Delegates from the 20 counties included in District Three reviewed the society's three-fold cancer control program and heard featured speaker Irving R. Rimer of New York speak at the luncheon.

Wright, who just completed a two year term as a district director for the society, presided over the afternoon session.

Three new delegates were elected to the State Board of Directors of the Texas ACS, including Mrs. Jack Foster, Pampa; Dr. A. B. Goldston, Amarillo; and Dr. James Garrison, Dalhart.

Scheduled Nov. 18 and 19 is the state Cancer Society meeting to be in San Antonio. One delegate will represent the Randall County Unit at the meeting.



Buffalo end Bruce Kimery reaches for the sky and a long, tall pass as Texas Westerner Ron Bostwick (24) watches and waits before plowing into Bruce. Both teams totaled a passing barrage of 31 attempted aerials, with WT hitting 6 of 12 and the Miners completing 4 of 19. West Texas racked up 92 yards in the air while the Miners gained 90. The Buffaloes won the game 14-0, scoring the second TD on a Bill Bundy to Dennis "Flash" Flanagan pass in the end zone.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Franklin, Renee and Skipper, former residents of Canyon, have moved to Lubbock. Franklin is teaching mathematics at Lubbock Christian College and studying for his Master's Degree at Texas Technological College. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Franklin of Canyon.

CANYON FINANCE CAMPAIGN

Majors and captains for the annual Boy Scout fund campaign met last week to plan drive strategy. Shown above are majors, Joe Gidden, Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland, Mrs. Jack Swatzell, Battle Harris and Marvin Fite. Gene McGlasson is chairman of the drive this year.

Seventh Graders In Gridiron Action

Several games have been recorded for the Canyon seventh grade football squads this season.

Seventh grade footballers are coached by Lowell Weaver. The squad uses a straight "T" formation.

Next game scheduled for the squad is Oct. 13 with Happy traveling to Canyon.

Games opened for the seventh graders in Sept. against Houston of Borger, with the Canyon team losing 16-0.

In the second season tilt Canyon lost a 8-0 battle with Hereford.

In last Thursday play the Canyon eleven fell to Stephen F. Austin of Borger 12-0 in a home gridiron game.

"I thought the boys played real good ball," said Weaver. "We played their "B" string 8th graders. They scored one touchdown after blocking our punt at the 3 yard line."

Weaver reported that starting fullback Tom Taylor suffered bruised ribs in the game and will probably be replaced in the starting lineup by Gary Gilbert.

Earlier this season halfback Keith Keeling broke an ankle and will probably be out all season.

Offensive blocking has been emphasized in workouts this week in preparation for the Happy game.

Probably starters for the 7th graders for the Oct. 13 game include ends, Gary Moore and Johnny Johnson; tackles, Wesley Hodges and Alfred Bayless; guards, Tom and Tim Van Valkenburg; center Randy Prichard; quarterback Larry Daniels; halfbacks, Steven Russell and David Erwin; and fullback Gilbert.

Remainder of the 7th grade football schedule is as follows:

Oct. 13 Happy at Canyon
Oct. 20 River Road of Amarillo at Canyon
Oct. 39 Tulia at Canyon

Games will start at 4 p.m. unless announced otherwise.

Roster of players for the 7th graders includes Kent Barnard, Alfred Bayless, Paul Blake, Neal Black, Mike Breitling, John Burrell, Ben Byrd, Terry Crow, Bruce Currie, Larry Daniels, Bobby Ellis, Bill Davis, Terry Martin, Steve Martinez, Gary Moore, Kelly Murphy, Mark Mathews, Steven Russell, Sammy Richard, Lynn Salmon, Frank Schickendanz, Walter Todd, John Eudy, David Erwin, Dale Fine, Brian Fassauer, Gary Gilbert, James Gressett, Sandy Hair, Wesley Hodges, Chris Hull, Gary Jackson, George Johnson, Johnny Johnson, Jim Rapkoch, Clay Michael, Jeff Pair, Randy Prichard, Larry Robinson, Vance Robinson, Gary Schrib, Ken Strohmeyer, Tom Taylor, Tim Van Valkenburg and Tom Van Valkenburg.

Life Of Reporter Is On The Run Very Wearing But Lots Of Fun

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

"Neither rain, nor snow...nor cracked headlights on the band bus...can keep this reporter... awake.

Oh yes, they told us, of course you can go to Levelland---to report the high school game, naturally.

"Being a true Eagle Supporter, I was overcome with joy, until it became apparent that we couldn't go alone.

Our sportswriter and I were going to join the Eagle Band for a three hour trip to Levelland.

"Be there at 4:15 sharp," came the authoritative voice over the telephone.

"Let's see, that gives us approximately two hours to work, and ten minutes to get ready."

It got to be 4:15, and we were there, sack lunches packed and all ready to leave for that unknown city, (and untried team.).

Ten minutes later, amid the shouting tumult of what seemed at the moment to be a cross between kids and those birds in the jungle that scream, the two buses left.

First, I decided to write a letter.

Five lines later I looked up, and over at L. my companion, who seemed to have a rather glazed look in her eyes.

"This is fun!" I kept thinking, if I tell myself this, maybe it will be.

We abandoned the notes and concentrated on talking to one another over the ever increasing din.

I think the idea occurred to each of us, at the exact same time...hunger.

"Want a chicken sandwich".

"I think I'll break out the coffee."

Then I think the idea also occurred to each of us, it was going to be a little warm for coffee, and we were both thirsty.

I heard one of the band members behind me say, "Look, we've come 11 miles in 20 minutes."

Maybe we'll get there in time for the half.

After we passed Buffalo Lake, then it began to go a little faster.

I consoled myself with the fact that maybe I would see a friend of mine from down in that part of the country.

Somewhere between Dimmitt and Littlefield, other people's potato chip bags, plastic sacks, and other remnants of lunches began to float to the front of the bus.

I wonder if we will be buried in plastic when we get there.

Somehow we finally reached Levelland, and I found my way into the stands near the press box.

Some Levelland residents informed me that I was in their seats, for which I heartily apologized.

The woman didn't seem to be pleased with my apology, for she informed me that was too bad, I should sit where I was supposed to.

I went to the Canyon side, after I found some familiar faces, Doris Moore's in particular.

Needless to say, there is little to mention about the game. I am no sportswriter, but even I know that we got smashed.

Time came for us to leave for home, and the word had never sounded so good.

"Buy some of those great sandwiches over there at the refreshment counter."

Being naturally hungry, I investigated. Sandwiches for 5¢? We purchased several.

Back on the bus, clutching my coke and sandwiches, I was ready to leave. Not yet? Well, thought I, I'll just put my coke up here on this little stand behind the bus driver.

What was that funny noise, I asked, as I looked down in time to view the remainder of my coke disappearing into my purse.

Cleaned up again and ready to go. OK.

"We can't leave until we get a new headlight for the bus."

Twenty minutes later, thanks to a faithful maintenance crew, our search ended. However, in installing the headlight, two fuses blew, and other fuses were removed from other spots to take their place.

We started off again.

Then it happened. The bus behind us stopped.

Our gallant bus driver, Manson, who I was then regarding as little less than a hero of the first degree, stopped to check.

"The tail lights have gone out on the bus behind us", he reported rather sheepishly.

Two more of our bus fuses disappeared, in an effort to help the bus behind us.

Headed for home again, we pulled over after about 10 more minutes.

"Now what?"

Manson reported that the lights had gone out in the pickup.

This happened once more, before everything seemed relatively quiet.

Things settled to a dull roar, and I was just falling asleep, when the lights came on.

Manson said that if the kids would keep their seats, he would leave the lights off.

I began praying that they would either sit down or stand up, and at least have the lights one way or the other.

They went off again.

We began talking to Manson.

Rehashing the game, I began to notice that I was getting the simples.

I began to consider the idea of sleep, when someone behind me said, "Dawn" - and I thought, "Is the sun coming up already?"

No, it was Dawn, the town.

Soon, we were back safe and sound although a little frazzed from our wild trip to Levelland.

Good ol' Canyon High surely did look good.

We were getting rather sleepy, although if I had stayed up much longer, I would have been up for the night.

Come to think of it, while I was considering thinking the bus ride was fun, it really was.

Since that game, we've played two others, and though I was unable to make the Childress game, it sounded pretty great.

I can hardly wait to go to Olton!

Mrs. J.A. Williams Watched Growth

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

Mrs. John Williams has watched growth of Canyon from not too distant a time--1951.

John A. Williams and his wife built their home on Eighth Avenue, east of highway 87, when they moved to Canyon from Amarillo.

"When we first moved here, there were no paved streets anywhere around us, and very few homes. We used to be able to look out the back window and watch the cars coming up the highway from the South.

A member of the Amarillo Study Club for 29 years, Mrs. Williams has only recently resigned from membership due to family illness. She worked for several years with Canyon Community Concerts, and served as social chairman during its first year of development.

The Williamses are members of the Church of Christ, and he serves as an elder in the church. Mrs. Williams formerly led a Bible class for seventh grade girls at the church.

Mrs. Williams, asked about her hobbies, stated that she wasn't really sure what a hobby was.

"I like to do so many different things that I'm always sort of messed up", she laughingly explained.

All of the dining room chairs are covered with needlepoint which Mrs. Williams has done.

"I enjoy china painting, working in the yard, and even cooking. I suppose one might say my hobby would be recipe collecting.

She has also antiqued several pieces found in the home, and plays the piano.

The Williamses son, Dale, is an attorney, in the firm of Lair and Williams. He and his wife have two daughters, Alicia, age 13, and Karen, age 7.

Mrs. Williams was born in Minter, Texas, and moved to Pampa with her parents in 1906. She and her husband have been married for 39 years.

As far as politics go in the Williams home life, Mrs. Williams states, "I don't usually pay too much attention to them. But every now and then I ask a question."

A loyal member of our community, a good friend, who is interested in everyone and everything about her, and a person who always has a lot to do. This illustrates our portrait of Mrs. John Williams, wife of one of our city commissioners.

Old favorites played on the piano are a diversion for Mrs. John A. Williams, wife of one of our city commissioners, who also enjoys needlepointing, china painting, and just being interested in people. The Williamses have lived in Canyon since 1951 when they built their home on Eighth Avenue, then unpaved.

Health Workshop Oct. 21-22

Second annual dental health education workshop at West Texas State University has been scheduled Oct. 21-22 in Canyon.

Allene Stovall, physical education instructor at WT, is in charge of arrangements for the two-day clinic, which begins at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct, 21.

Invitations to area teachers, dentists and health classes at WT have been mailed. Last year more than 100 persons participated in the program.

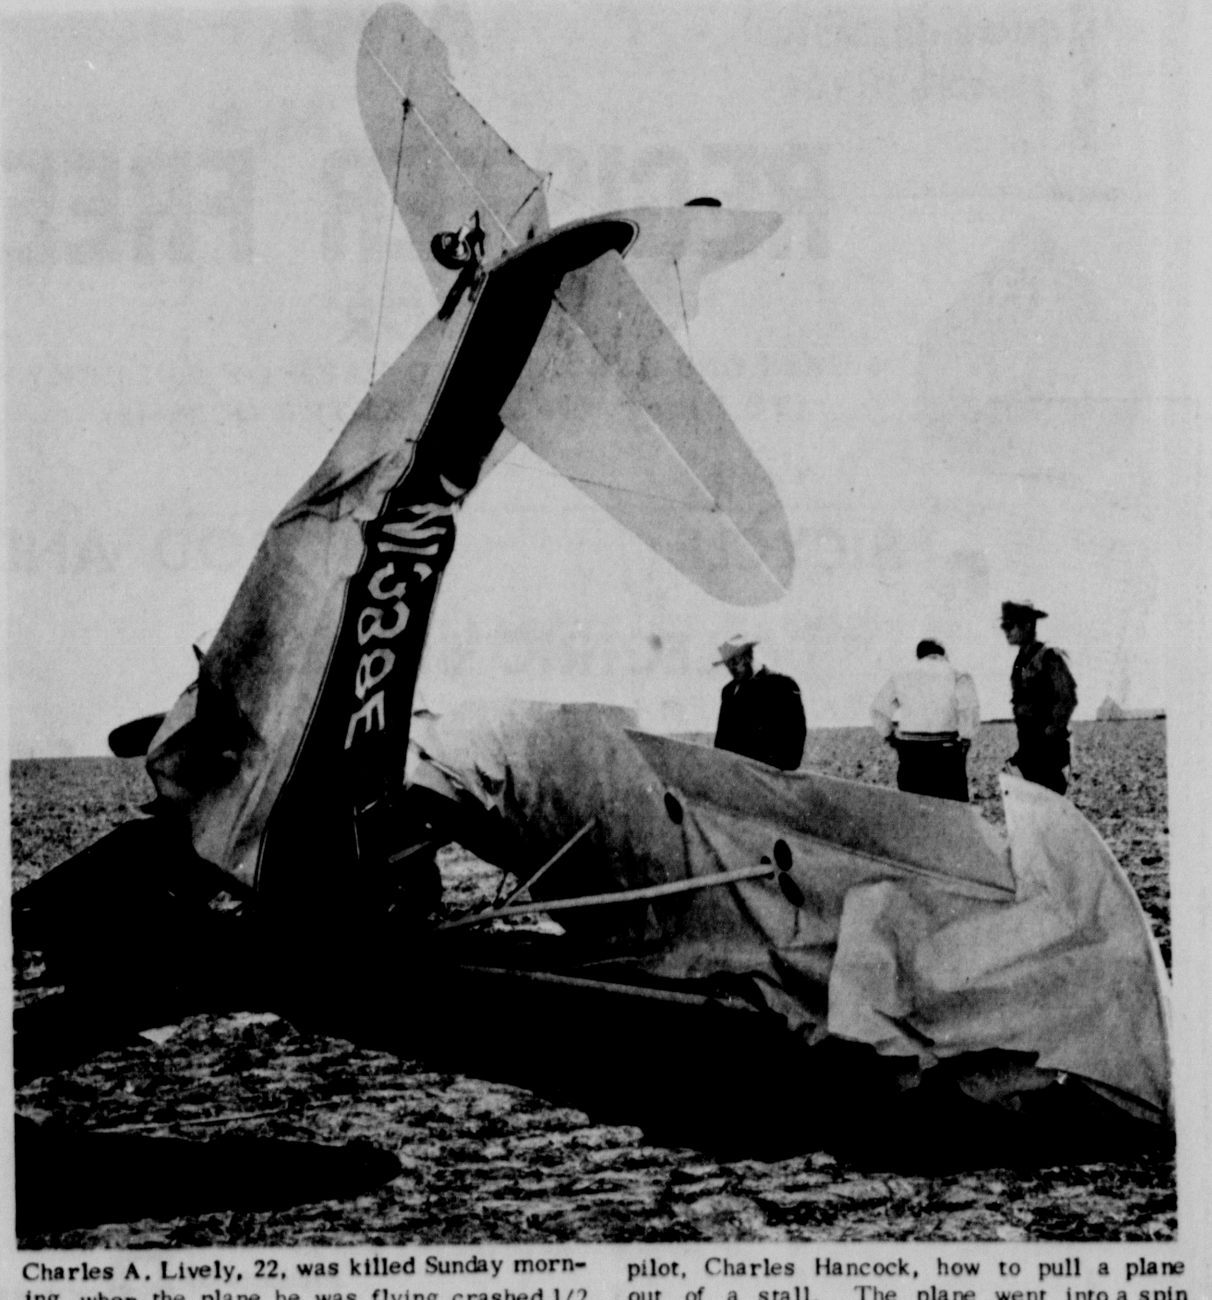
The workshop is being sponsored by the Texas Dental Association Council, the Texas State Department of Health and the Panhandle District Dental Society.

The workshop discussions and speeches will be conducted by such persons as Dr. Smith B. Sypert, chairman of the Dental Health Committee in the Panhandle; Dr. Tom Gerald, president-elect of the Panhandle District Dental Association; Dr. John Wilbanks, Dr. Jesse Gee of Austin; Dr. Calwell Beckham, and Dr. Weldon Adair, president of the Panhandle District Dental Association.

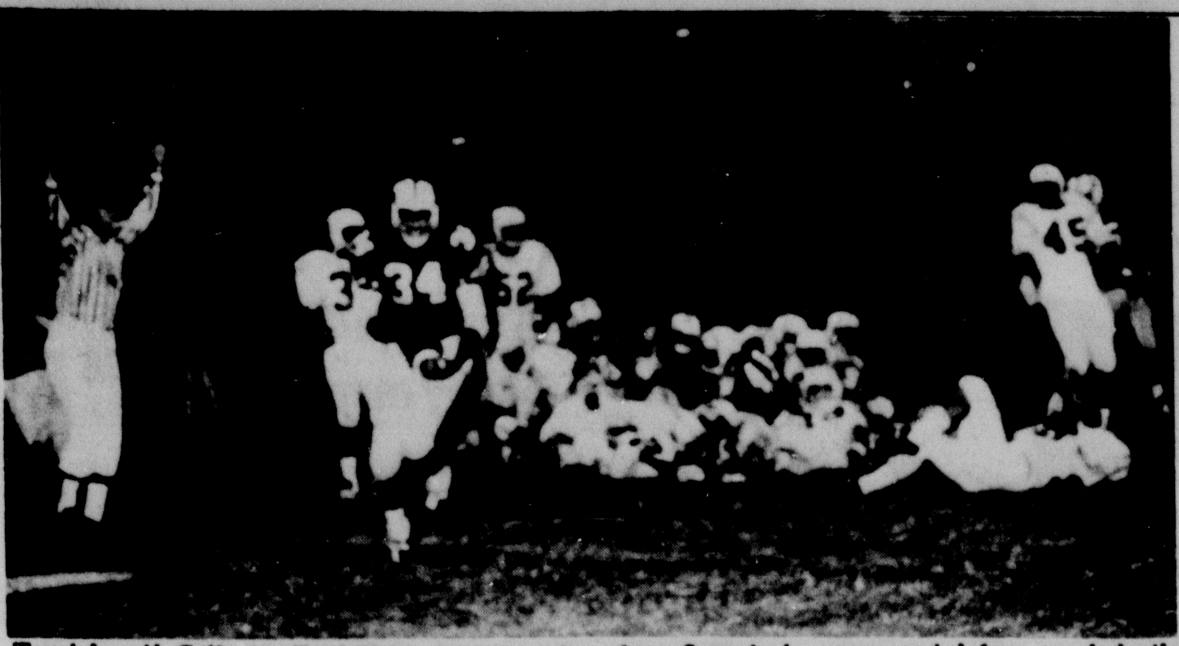
The meetings will begin both nights at 7 o'clock and will end at 9:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building on the WT campus.

The public is invited to attend the workshop.

A similar workshop will be held Nov. 16-17 in the Amarillo Public Schools administration building. Discussion groups, films and speeches will highlight both workshops.



Charles A. Lively, 22, was killed Sunday morning when the plane he was flying crashed 1/2 mile south of the Amarillo city limits. Lively stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, was a flying instructor and was showing a student pilot, Charles Hancock, how to pull a plane out of a stall. The plane went into a spin and crashed. Hancock was watching from the ground. Highway patrolman Bill Clifton investigated the accident.



Touchdown!! Galloping Earl West charges madly toward the end zone after springing into running room on a quick opener off tackle play. West pounded out six yards for the first Buffalo touchdown against Texas Western in last Saturday's game and left a tangled pile of Buffaloes and Miners behind him. West Texas State University snatched their first season victory against Texas Western, 14-0, in a hard fought, well-earned winning struggle.

Cowboys Seek Branding Iron For Steers Friday

Happy Cowboys, lassos in hand, will match wits with the Lazbuddie Longhorns Friday night for the first district tilt in Class 1-B.

Ricky Mantooth's eleven will host the Longhorns in Cowboy Corral and will attempt to close the gates on the victory hungry herd.

Lazbuddie has yet to win a game this season, but the Cowboys are looking for some longhorned varmits in the annual tussle.

Happy dehorned Lazbuddie last year 45-14 in the final game. The Longhorns ended the season with a 2-7-1 record compared to a 3-7 showing for the Cowboys.

This year Happy has a 2-1-1 record facing the mighty Longhorns.

"Lazbuddie has been beaten by Whiteface, Sundown and Wilson. But all three teams are ranked high in their district, so you can't tell what they will come up with," Happy head coach Mantooth said.

"Lazbuddie used different formations each game, so we don't know for sure what they will use against us Friday night," Mantooth continued.

Happy will be looking for another district title this year. They took the championship in 1962 under the coaching of Dean King, presently at Lefors.

Lazbuddie was picked as last in the district by coaches in the district early in the season. Happy was rated number one. Polls during the season have switched both teams.

The Longhorns list experience as their main strength with 15 lettermen returning from last year's squad, and nine regulars suited out for action this fall.

Happy had 12 lettermen return with seven regulars.

Gary Culp, senior quarterback for the Cowboys, suffered a sprained ankle Friday night in the game against Kress, but will see action Friday, according to Mantooth.

Gametime is 8 p.m. in Happy.

Hospital Fund Report Heard

A workers report on the High Plains Hospital Fund was heard at a meeting held Thursday of last week at the West Texas State University east cafeteria.

Heading up the Canyon drive is Jerry LaGrone. The fund raising campaign will continue.

Canyon is a part of an effort to raise $5,000,000 for construction of a general hospital just west of Amarillo Veterans Hospital. More than $3,500,000 already has been raised.

Plans call for construction of a 400 bed hospital to be operated by the Texas Baptist convention. The new hospital will be a part of a medical center which will occupy a 300 acre site.

The hospital and medical center will be designed to serve the entire Panhandle area.

Flowers?

Tobacco—in the front yard, in the garden, amongst the flowers. "I thought the seeds were flower seeds," said Bob Pittard of 403 Taylor Lane, who is shown examining his tobacco patch. Pittard planted the seeds earlier, later noticed the strange plant thriving beautifully among the tiny garden flowers. "I compared the leaves with some shown in a picture section of the Amarillo newspaper," said Bob, "and sure enough, it was tobacco. I think the seeds must have been some we got when we lived in New Mexico. The tobacco would grow well here except for the wind blowing too hard. I don't know what brand we're growing."

Last Rites Conducted In Friona

Funeral services were conducted Sept. 27, for Mrs. Corda Ruth Slagle, 66, mother of Mrs. Ted Rutherford, former Canyon resident.

Last rites were held in the Friona Methodist Church, Friona, with Rev. Herschel L. Thurston, pastor of the Hereford First Methodist Church, officiating. Rev. Russell McAnally, pastor of the Friona church, assisted.

Burial was in the Friona Cemetery with Rebekah rites.

Mrs. Slagle was born in Worth County, Missouri, Dec. 20, 1897. She married Roy Tilden Slagle in October of 1917 in St. Joseph, Missouri. They moved to the Texas Panhandle in February, 1920, and lived near Conway, Panhandle and Friona. The couple spent three years on a ranch near Farley, New Mexico.

Mrs. Slagle was active in church and civic projects during her lifetime. She became a member of the Methodist Church at the age of 12 in Missouri, and was a charter member of the Friendship Circle Club in Panhandle. She was past president of the Friona PTA, Friona Woman's Club, Woman's Society of Christian Service and was honored with the "Lifetime Membership Pin." She worked with the Girl Scouts, was a member of the Rebekah Lodge and the Parmer County Hospital Auxiliary.

Mrs. Slagle had been ill since March and died Sept. 25 in the Parmer County Hospital in Friona.

She is survived by her husband, Roy of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Martha Rutherford of Amarillo; one son, R. Tilden Slagle of Center, Colorado; a sister, Mrs. Lura Slagle of Panhandle; five grandsons, a granddaughter and a great granddaughter.

Dudley Bayne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Bayne, is on a teaching fellowship at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Bayne, who graduated from Texas Technological College, is doing post graduate work on his Master's degree in Electrical Engineering. His parents are former residents of Canyon, and Bayne is former city manager. They are now residents of Hereford.

Bobcats Flogged 37-0, By Eagles

BY LYNZA CARADINE

Feathers and fur flew as Canyon's district 1-AAA Eagles flogged the Childress Bobcats 37-0 on the Childress battleground Friday night.

The Eagles soared to a 10-0 halftime lead on the running of Tommy Sanford and kicking toe of tackle Wayne Colling.

Second half activity was as exciting as a three-ring circus with Sanford romping for two more markers, Joe Moore passing to James Cabe for another and the last score coming from a pass interception by Gary McAtee.

The Eagles could not be contained as they rushed for 357 yards against the Bobcats' 57.

Childress' squad, minus several starting linemen plus first string quarterback Mike Reeves, was able to penetrate only once in Canyon territory.

It was the fourth loss in 4 outings for Childress. Canyon captured its first win against 3 losses.

One game remains for the Eagles before going into district action. Canyon meets Olton at Olton Friday. The Eagles then take a break before swinging into district play against Hereford here Oct. 23.

Strong line play and a hard-running backfield were keys to the Eagle win in the Friday clash.

Sparked by backs Wayne Brewer, Dennis Haley, Joe Moore and Sanford, quarterback Tom Lair sent his unit into scoring territory time and time again.

Canyon's forward wall cleared a path for up-the-middle plays.

Playing heads-up ball were guard Joe Kerbel, who recovered a third quarter fumble to set up an Eagle scoring drive and halfback Gary McAtee with a beautiful pass interception and good running.

Eagle scoring opened with Sanford taking the ball on third down, 7:37 on the clock, and dodging Bobcat defenders for a 24 yard scamper to pay dirt. Wayne Colling kicked good for the 7-0 lead.

In second quarter action the Eagles rushed from the Childress 34 to the 12-yard line before sending Colling back to kick a 28-yard field goal with 6:57 left.

Halftime scoring stood 10-0.

Canyon, building confidence with each down, powered for the second game touchdown with 6:13 reading on the third down clock. Sanford made the tally going 31-yards and Colling missed the boot. The score stood 16-0.

Sanford swooped 2 yards for the next marker, 1:33 on the clock. Colling kicked good and Canyon led 23-0.

The Bobcats rolled into fourth quarter play using their effective short punt set-up to let fly a passing attack by quarterback Bobby Roland. The Eagles held tight and Childress' Phil Self boomed a punt to the Eagle goal and Canyon took over at the 20.

From there Canyon moved to the 26 before Eagle signaler Lair gave the ball to Joe Moore, Moore passed to James Cabe in the end zone and Colling kicked another extra. Eagles held a 30-0 edge with 7:10 remaining.

Colling kicked off and the Bobcats clicked for one good pass before passing on second down straight to alert Eagle McAtee, who stole it in mid-air and dashed for 54 yards to tally. Colling booted the conversion for the final 37-0 score, 5:57 on the timer.

Childress rushed and passed to the Eagle 17 before losing the pighide to the Eagles at the 18. Time ran out with Canyon initiating another march downfield.

The Eagles meet Olton, who was idle this weekend, then clash with the Whitefaces of Hereford, who took an 18-15 upset from Levelland last Friday.

Canyon "B", Friona Clash Here Saturday

Plainview snatched a 28-7 win over Canyon High's "B" football squad last Thursday at Canyon.

The "B" squad scored in the first quarter of play but was unable to build the lead from there.

Plainview's undefeated squad captured a 16-7 halftime edge then jelled the win with 2 second half markers.

The Plainview scoring first came from a couple of pass plays, according to "B" coach Roy Kieval.

"Our pass defense was pretty weak," said Kieval. "We are going to have to work on the defense."

Scoring for the "B" squad came from a touchdown tally by Jack Stevens. Lynn Kelley booted the extra point.

Canyon's "B" team went into the tilt with two new halfbacks after injuries removed the starters. "The new backs did pretty well," said Kieval.

"Offensively, we didn't move the ball as well as I thought we would."

"Jack Swatzell did a pretty good job at quarterbacking, and Clyde Flowers recovered three fumbles and ran very well, also."

"Tommy Thompson, sophomore halfback, came through for us and ran real well in the game," Kieval said.

"We had a good effort, but we were just out-manned. We made mistakes that hurt. The boys do the best they can and they don't give up too easily."

Kieval stated that this week's workouts have been emphasizing pass defense. He also reported the boys in good spirit and working hard.

The "B" squad goes against Friona Saturday at 10 a.m. in Canyon.

"Friona is usually pretty tough and they have a strong football program," said Kieval. "My boys are wanting to win this one and they're going to be trying."

Kieval named the same starting forward wall including ends. Gary Mulkey and Don Howard; tackles, Alex Gordon and Dusty Arnold; guards Jerry Davis and Lynn Kelley; and center, Scott Russell. Quarterback is Jack Swatzell, halfbacks Charles Bussey and either Tommy Thompson, Max Sunderman or Jack Stevens; and fullback Clyde Flowers.

Olton Trip Friday For Canyon Eagles

Initiation ceremonies in 1-AAA conference football play is only one game and an open date away for Canyon High School's Eagles.

The Eagles take a trip to Olton Friday for an 8 p.m. game, then take a schedule-break Oct. 16.

First district play is against Hereford Oct. 23, home action in Buffalo Bowl.

Canyon head coach Jeep Webb's concern this week has been Olton. The Mustangs were picked at the top of district 3-AA in early polls, but have faced a rough schedule for a 1-3 record.

The '63 Mustang unit compiled a 7-3 season game tally and returning to the squad were 14 lettermen and 9 starters for '64 play.

"Olton has played tough football this year," said Webb. "They mix their offense and can run or pass."

Balance has been the key to Mustang strength while a weakness was listed as lack of reserve quarterbacks.

"Joe Priest is their quarterback," said Webb. "He is a good passer and this is his third year to start for them. He started as a freshman."

Webb also mentioned center Dennis Givens, 190 pound senior, and Richard Hall, halfback, 160 pound senior, as players to watch.

Formation-wise, Olton will split one end, slot the other end and the back, or will run from an "I" formation. "They also run some spread formation," Webb said.

Backfield weight averages about 158 and the line average is about 176 pounds.

A healthy Eagle flock returned to drills this week with the exception of quarterback Alex deSchweinitz. Webb reported that deSchweinitz cracked a bone in his foot in the Childress game Friday.

"We had pretty good workouts today," said Webb earlier this week.

Speaking of the Childress game, Canyon's first season victory, Webb said, "I was well pleased with the boys. I thought they had a real good effort."

The Eagles trampled Childress 37-0 to bring the season record to 1-3. Every member of the Canyon team saw action during the Friday battle.

Cage Practice Opens Oct. 15 For Buffaloes

Basketball practice gets underway at West Texas State University Oct. 15 and coach Jimmy Viramontes is ready.

In his first year of coaching at WTSU, Viramontes tutored his boys to the best record for the Buffalo squad since 1955.

Last season's Buffs had a 13-9 season finish, but finished strong by winning 8 of the last 11 ballgames.

Viramontes was pleased with the team's improvement last year, but not satisfied.

"We must keep improving," he said. "If we do keep improving, other problems will take care of themselves. And we will improve!"

"One thing won't be in our favor this year as it was last year," said Viramontes. "That is the element of surprise."

"This year that element is gone. Our opponents will be looking for us to have a better team. We will have to work hard to do better."

Practice sessions beginning next Thursday, Oct. 15th, will be held from 3 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, in the Field House.

Practice will be open to the public.

"We prefer that those who wish to watch practice would sit upstairs," said Viramontes. "But we make exceptions for those unable to climb the stairs. The public is welcome to come and watch our workouts."

Two scrimmages are planned early in November for the Buffs, both intrasquad scrimmages.

The first scrimmage will be open only to Basketball Booster Club members and prospective members, and will be to introduce members to the WTSU players.

The second scrimmage will be the "Hall of Fame" scrimmage. Boys will dress in game uniforms for both intrasquad scrimmages.

Buff varsity personnel this season includes returnees Kirby Pugh, 6'5, 210 forward; George Scott, 5'10, 165, guard; James Strahan, 5'9, 140, guard; Joe McWilliams, 5'9, 156, guard; Marvin Mitchell, 6'2, 180, guard; and Gail Simpson, 6', 160, guard; Harry Lisle, 5'8, 155, guard; and Sherffield Whaley, 6'3, 180, forward.

Additions to the varsity roster include E. B. Attaway, 6'8, 260, center; Ben Finley, 6'7, 205, forward; James Giles, 6'4, 215, forward; and Calvin Taylor, 6'7, 205, center.

Six freshmen prospects are listed on the roster for the coming season. They will be coached by Dale Burrows. Frosh cagers are Jody Richardson, 6'1, and Skip Moore, 6'4, both from Canyon High School's AA State championship team; Jack Johnson, 6'7, of Quitaque; Robert Seagroves, 6'7, of Muleshoe; Rondy Williams, 6'7, Andrews; and Wade Crook, 6'8, Sanford-Fritch.

Kangaroos Pounce, Cowboys Drop, 19-8

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

Happy Cowboys were unprepared for the shiftless feet and bouncing nature of the Kress Kangaroos Friday night.

Before a capacity crowd in Cowboy Corral, the Cowboys were drummed, 19-8.

The undefeated Cowboys held the victory-hungry Kangaroos until early in the second half when Mike Turner, Kress halfback, skirted around end for the first tally of the game.

The score came after a 35 yard drive by Kress from the Happy 35.

Halfback James Lockridge took over on the first down for Kress and six plays later Turner fought across the goal. A kick attempt was no good and with 4:04 left in the quarter, Kress led 6-0.

Happy forces rallied in the next set of plays and took the lead briefly from the Kangaroos.

Jim McManigal, fullback, took the skin on the first play following the kick from Kress. He struck through the middle for 3, and Gary Culp, quarterback, tossed a screen pass to Tom Moudy for 7 and the first.

From their own 31, the Cowboys took to the air again and Culp connected again with Moudy for a gain of 5.

On second and third and 5, Culp was unable to find a receiver for his ball, and Happy faced a 4-5 situation on their own 36.

Culp kicked to the Kress 38. But it was not time for the Kangaroos and on first down a fumble put the ball back into Happy hands.

First and 10 on the Kress 28, Culp moved the ball 9 yards around end for near the first down. Culp carried on the second down, but made no yardage, and McManigal was called upon for a hearty run.

McManigal took the handoff and galloped 23 yards for the Happy lone score. A pass from Culp to McManigal in the end zone put the score at 8-6 with Happy leading.

But the Cowboy's rope was not tight enough around the jumping Kangaroos.

Happy held the Kress eleven on the fourth down in the first series following the kickoff, but on second down for the Cowboys, a pass was intercepted by Manuel Antiveros of Kress.

Kress came into possession of the ball and six plays later put another tally on the score board.

Again Turner was manuvering the Kangaroos for the score. McManigal drove through the center for Happy and blocked the extra point try. Kangaroos led, 8-12.

Happy took the kickoff, but the bouncing Kangaroos were all over the field. On the second down of the series, McManigal fumbled and Kress recovered on the Happy 19.

Another series for Kress put the ball on the 4, and quarterback Larry Fields rounded right end for the third Kress tally. The kick was good and the scoreboard showed 8-19 for Kress.

With only seconds left in the game, Happy was unable to make yardage, and the game ended with Happy on the short end of the Kangaroo throwing rope.

Kress led throughout the game on number of downs and yardage gained. Happy totaled only 4 first down compared to 13 for the Kangaroos.

Happy had three fumbles and Kress had only two.

Happy had 6 penalties for 30 yards and Kress had 3 for 25 yards.

Happy attemped 9 passes and completed 4. They intercepted one Kress pass.

Kress attempted 9 passes and completed only 2 with one interception on their side.

Cowboys made only 78 total yardage during the game.

Happy will host Lazbuddie tomorrow night at 8 p.m.

Canyon Frosh Lose To Borger

Austin of Borger skipped to a 32-8 victory over Canyon's freshman football team Thursday at Canyon.

Coach Gary Steinberger said Canyon scoring came in the final 3 minutes of action.

Scoring the six-pointer was quarterback Andy Moreland, who rolled out to the right side and scampered over the marker. Canyon gambled for the two-point conversion and made it to total 8 points.

"Austin hasn't lost a game this season," said Steinberger. "The team has played 3, won 3. Austin is primarily a ground team and they ran us to death around the ends and off tackle. We didn't have anybody strong enough to hold them."

Steinberger reported that the Canyon squad found some fighting spirit about the fourth quarter and drove all the way for the score. "The boys were just dead and couldn't move the ball at first."

Next on the frosh schedule is Friona and the teams clash Saturday, 9 a.m., at the Canyon High School field.

Drills this week have been primarily on offensive blocking, defensive hitting and secondary pass protection.

Listed as probably starters for Canyon are ends, Avery Thrasher and Jeff Suttle; tackles, Bob Gruner and Pat Jarrett; guards, Ronnie Russell and John Warren, moved from the fullback spot; center, Ronnie Wooten; quarterback Andy Moreland; fullback Danny White; and halfbacks, Tony Gibson and Teddy Walker.

Designers Plan Tour In Canyon

Some 40 interior designers will stop in Canyon Saturday morning during a tour of special design interest.

Designers from Dallas, Fort Worth and Amarillo will tour the new St. Ann's Catholic church, east of Canyon, and the fine arts department at West Texas State University.

Charles Detten, art instructor at WT, will serve as master of ceremonies for the group while they are in Canyon.

"The 42 persons in the tour should arrive in Canyon around 10 a.m. Saturday after having breakfast in Amarillo and touring Bob McKenzie's studio south of Amarillo," Detten said.

While at WT members of the tour will view the Neiman-Marcus collection, which is on display in the fine arts building, fabric printing classes and a creative hobbies class.

From Canyon the group will return to Amarillo for tours of several businesses and on the Clayton, New Mexico and Taos, New Mexico.

Junior Jumper Provides Fun At Tri-State Fair

Hours at the fair proved busy as well as fun for Chuck Nester, who spent much of his time assisting at a simulated parachute jump at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

The son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Nester, Chuck is a member of Det. 2, Co. B., 9th Special Forces Group (Abn), who manned the "Junior Jumper".

The Special Forces unit worked with the U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station in Amarillo.

Chuck described his work with the "Jumper" in this way:

"The "Junior Jumper" is a close approximation of the "Thirty-four Foot Tower" used at Fort Benning, Georgia, (home of Airborne training), to help train airborne recruits. It is a training aid, and enables the new jumper to become used to heights, and exits from aircraft.

The "Junior Jumper" is only 18 feet high, in comparison, and only one person can make a 'jump' at a time. The "thirty-four foot tower "can accomodate eight at once.

"During our week at the fair, we "jumped" over 1500 kids, ranging in age from 2 to 49. It would be possible to 'jump' about 70 per hour, if the amusement were speeded up to a faster pace.

"Only having one cable slows the jump down, and makes standing in line necessary. Next year we hope to have four cables, and this should eliminate the lines.

The Amarillo recruiting unit also set up one of the jumpers at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair in Lubbock last week. Several of the members of the unit went down to assist at the fair.

To further illustrate the popularity of the "Junior Jumper", each person who jumped received a certificate naming him as a "United States Army Junior Jumper."

"Each successive time they jumped, a star was placed on the certificate. Some of the little fellas had as many as 15 or 20 stars, although they had to stand in line for as long as two hours for each jump.

The attraction proved more interesting to boys than girls, as the great majority of persons 'jumping' were boys.

Chuck suggested that if those persons who watched and enjoyed the "jumper" would write to the U.S. Army Recruiting Main Station, Amarillo, %M/Sgt Blevins, and tell him, including any suggestions they might have, it would be greatly appreciated.

All equipment used in the "Junior Jumper" was donated by various persons, companies, etc. The program was free of charge.

The Special Forces group was asked to assist with the "Jumper" because they were airborne qualified, and were familiar with the device.

"In this way, we helped prevent unnecessary injuries which could be caused from improper handling of equipment.

Next year when the Fair comes again to Amarillo, this reporter may not be first in line to "jump", but in spirit, will be "with 'em all the way".

Performance Dates Told

Dates for the 1964-65 Community Concert Association programs have been set, according to Mrs. Joseph Findley, chairman.

Lee Luvisi, famed pianist, will appear on the Canyon High School stage Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m. His program will be released at a later date.

The Rabinofs, husband and wife team, will perform in Canyon at 3 p.m. Sunday, January 31, 1965. Mr. and Mrs. Rabinof are a piano and violin duo.

Martha Schlamme, folk singer, will provide a Valentine Day program at 3 p.m. Feb. 14, 1965.

Membership drive for the association ended last week. Tickets will not be sold at the door of the performance.

Officers Named For Rodeo Club

Officers were recently elected for the T-Anchor Rodeo Club at West Texas State University.

President is Sam Brown of Adrian; vice-president, Buddy Trimmier, Hale Center; secretary Kay Bussard, Higgins; treasurer Cheryl Alred, Vega; and reporter, Ronnie Jenkins, Clayton, New Mexico.

ROTC Visit October 13

The Military Science department at West Texas State University is slated for a visit from the Deputy Commanding General of Fourth United States Army, Oct. 13.

Major General William A. Harris, of Fort Sam Houston, where Fourth Army is headquartered, will arrive at 10:40 a.m. in Amarillo.

While at West Texas State, he will visit with Lt. Col. Henry L. Calder, professor of military science, and tour the facilities of the department.

Harris is also scheduled to visit with the dean of the university.

A luncheon honoring Harris will be attended by officials of the university, unit officers, and honor cadets.

Harris will complete his inspection at 1 p.m., the approximate time of departure.

Oct. 26 will be the changeover date to winter uniforms for Army personnel in the Panhandle area.

Active Army personnel may wear the new lightweight Army green uniform (AG 344), for year-round use.

On the second Monday in March the trend will be reversed and summer uniforms will again be worn by Army personnel.

Out-Of-State Girls Listed On Dorm Roll

East and West and points in between have met in Cousins Hall at West Texas State University.

Dormitory supervisor Mrs. Fern Patching listed 15 girls from 13 different out-of-state places this semester.

Girls include Charlotte Bialkouski from the Canal Zone; Carol Blair, Cocoa Beach, Florida; Shirley Bucklew, Warsaw, Ohio; Sharon Dennis and Marcene Edwards, Tucumcari, New Mexico; Katheryn Drown, Holdrege, Nebraska; Shirley Eaton, Arvada, Colorado; Sandra Fincher, Boise City, Oklahoma; Shirley Glover, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Catherine Hale, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Wanda Jack and Sue O'Banion, Hobbs, New Mexico; Sandra Tepper, Cleveland, Ohio; Sue Wiseman, Monument, New Mexico; and Shannon Tout, of the Phillippines and presently of San Francisco, California.

"I think this is wonderful," said Mrs. Patching. "New students coming from so many places are helping put our University on the map."

"And besides, think of all the new friends the girls can meet."

MRS. DAN SANDERS

Europeon Visit Makes Memories

BY LYNZA CARADINE

"One of the swords of the Cid"............"The people are just like us"........."Most exquisite was the Royal Palace of Madrid".......

Like snatches of fleeting dreams are memories most vivid in the minds of Dr. Ples Harper and Mrs. Dan Sanders.

Dr. Harper, head of the foreign language department at West Texas State University, organized a tour to Europe this summer.

Mrs. Sanders joined the group. Included were people from Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona.

The tour began July 15 with the first stop at Houston, then New York. "We flew Air France leaving New York at 3 p.m.," said Harper.

"Seven hours, 15 minutes later, we were in Paris."

In Paris, began a whirlwind sightseeing tour which lasted three and one-half weeks. Scheduled for sightseeing were all the famous places which the group had time to see.

Unscheduled, but as important and treasured, were the side-points of beauty and of interest brought home individually in each person's heart.

Arriving in Paris the group included on their visit the Eiffel Tower, Louvre and Versailles.

"One always enjoys the Louvre Art Museum," said Mrs. Sanders, "for some of the greatest art masterpieces are there."

"Of course, just to be in a city like Paris, to go shopping in the fashion center of the world, is exciting."

Next the group went to England. "I guess most of all I enjoyed being in the background of our own history," said Mrs. Sanders.

"To go to some of the castles, see works of art now preserved there, to go to towers where famous prisoners were kept, the place where Anne Bolen was executed..."

"It makes you realize time is very important in history. Essentially people remain the same from century to century," Mrs. Sanders mused.

"One day we drove to Stratford," said Harper. "We visited Shakespeare's home and on returning saw Warwick castle."

Mrs. Sanders continued, "We saw the changing of the guards, Parliament, residence of the Queen, Westminister Abbey and especially poet's corner...all of these we had read about."

Germany was next on the trip. "I suppose I was impressed mostly with the fact that it has rebuilt itself so rapidly. The city streets were so clean, so well kept, and how well fed we were!" said Mrs. Sanders.

"We stayed in Cologne where we saw the second largest cathedral in the world. The sheer size of the Cologne Cathedral is overpowering. The mosaics in the stained glass windows there are taken apart during each war then the people must put them back together. They are beautiful."

Next was a trip up the Rhine River. "Delightful," said Mrs. Sanders.

"We traveled by steamboat," said Harper.

Next---Switzerland!

"We spent several days in Lucerne," said Harper.

"We didn't tarry in Zurich," said Mrs. Sanders, "went straight to Lucerne, where our hotel was on the lake. We took a trip to Mt. Pilatus, going up on two types of cable cars."

"The Swiss are noted for the ability to make machinery."

Next in Venice where Mrs. Sanders said, "I expected not to be happy."

"The gondolas are much more fun than I expected. And Venice was clean and food was good. You can't miss seeing the beautiful glasswork, and the lace."

"We flew to Milan, to Italy," said Harper, "and the mountains, from the air, are beautiful."

Florence, cultural center of Italy, held much fascination for the group. Michaelangelo's work for the Medici family, the Sistine Chapel...memories and treasures of Italy. "We traveled down by Assissi and on to Rome," said Harper.

In Rome, they spent several days, attending a ballet and opera in the Baths of Caracella one evening.

"In Rome, we saw so many of the old ruins, buildings there since the time of Christ, the area where Nero ruled, catacombs where Christians lived underground," said Mrs. Sanders softly.

Madrid was next. "I was surprised to enjoy Spain as much as I did," said Mrs. Sanders, "but like Harper, I had a feeling for Spain."

"The Royal Palace of Madrid was the most exquisite of all places we saw!" said Harper. "You cannot imagine how beautiful...!"

"The most beautiful of all art treasures are in Madrid; the tapestries, old, old works of literature, beautiful Bibles," said Mrs. Sanders.

She recalled El Escorial, burial place for the Kings, and the Prado Museum. "We visited the Valley of the Fallen, a monument to the war dead from the Spanish War," she recalled.

From Madrid the group returned to Paris, then flew back to Paris and New York.

"Our trip was air travel and by jet," said Harper. "There is less noise in a jet than riding with your car window down--I was amazed," he said.

Upon arrival in New York, the majority of the touring group returned to Amarillo then to their homes. Harper and son, John, spent an extra day in New York to see the World's Fair before returning home.
